

Physician Office and Hospital Outpatient Billing

This medical office is considered a hospital outpatient location. You will typically be charged for the physician's examination, which will usually be covered by your co-payment.

You will also be charged by the hospital for use of hospital space, equipment, and support staff. This is commonly known as a "Facility Fee." This may change your out-of-pocket responsibility.

For more information, please visit:
massgeneralbrigham.org/patient-information/billing-and-insurance